

feat ourselves, lose that Christianity which we pretend to strive for! O thou which makest Men to be of one Mind in an House, be pleased so to unite us, that we may be perfectly joined together in the same Mind, and in the same Judgment.
 And now that in Civil Affairs there seems some Aptness to a Composure, O let not our Spiritual Differences be more un-reconcileable. Lord, let not the roughest Winds blow out of the Sanctuary, let not those which should be Embassadors for Peace, still sound a Trumpet for War; but thou reveal Thyself to all our Elijahs in that small Voice, which may teach them to echo Thee in the like meek treating with others.

 Lord, let no unseasonable Stiffness of those that are in the Right, no perverie Obstinacy of those that are in the Wrong, hinder the closing of our Wounds; but let the one instruct in Meekness, and be thou pleased to give the other Re-
